Morning Steve. The change here is that instead of going to 75-25 after the 30-day 100% fed share, the state will only be on for 10% of the cost share.

Ari, did I get it right or miss anything important?

Does this affect our mission assignments at all... not sure what this means.. or is it just adding more money to the Disaster Relief Fund for Hurricane Harvey in general ??

President Donald J. Trump Amends State of Texas Disaster Declaration

Release date:

September 15, 2017

Release Number:

HQ-17-119

WASHINGTON – The Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA) announced additional disaster assistance is available to the state of Texas. The additional assistance authorizes an increase in federal funding for Public Assistance projects as a result of Hurricane Harvey beginning on August 23, 2017, and continuing. The President's action today authorizes 90 percent federal cost share of the total eligible costs for public assistance projects (emergency work and the permanent repair and replacement of disaster-damaged facilities), except for assistance previously approved at 100 percent.

With Regards, Steve
